PAPERWORK · 1/5

The Foreign Police has moved

Since 18 May 2026, Bratislava's Foreign Police is at Račianska 62 (Nové Mesto), not Regrútska 4. Older guides may still show the old address.

Rules change – always double-check

Test yourself 👇

Full guide on expatbase.sk

Tap the link below ↓

HEALTH · 1/4

8 days. That's your insurance deadline.

Register with a health insurer within 8 days of starting a job, a živnosť or permanent residence. Late? Fines up to €3,319 – plus full price for care in the gap.

Rules change – always double-check

Test yourself 👇

Full guide on expatbase.sk

Tap the link below ↓

MONEY · 1/6

Open your IBAN before you land

Slovak banks need in-person verification, but Revolut or Wise open remotely from home. Slovak payroll accepts any EU IBAN – so you're set for payday.

Your turn – vote 👇

Full guide on expatbase.sk

Tap the link below ↓

WORK · 1/5

EB

Register your živnosť online — it's free

A free-trade živnosť (voľná) costs €0 via slovensko.sk vs €7 in person. You'll need a Slovak eID with a chip.

Rules change — always double-check

Full guide on expatbase.sk

Tap the link below ↓

PAPERWORK · 2/5

Airbnb won't get you a permit

For a non-EU residence permit you need a lease with notarised owner signatures – or the owner's notarised consent. It's the most common stumbling block, so sort it first.

Rules change – always double-check

Need a hand? Find English-speaking real estate agents on expatbase.sk – free for expats.

Full guide on expatbase.sk

Tap the link below ↓

MONEY · 2/6

Why you'll still want an SK IBAN

Some landlords and utilities still prefer a Slovak IBAN for direct debits. Employed? Ask HR — if your employer works with Tatra banka, opening an account is usually fast-tracked.

Full guide on expatbase.sk

Tap the link below ↓

HEALTH · 2/4

Don't speak Slovak? Start with Union

Slovakia has 3 public insurers: VšZP, Dôvera and Union. Union is currently the only one with fully English online registration. Tell HR your pick – otherwise VšZP is typically the default.

Rules change – always double-check

Your turn – vote 👇

Full guide on expatbase.sk

Tap the link below ↓

WORK · 2/5

EB

The “first year free” rule is gone

Since 1 Jan 2026, new self-employed pay social insurance from the 1st day of the 6th month (start in March → pay from 1 Sept). You begin on the reduced mikroodvod, about €131.34/month.

Rules change – always double-check

Test yourself 👇

Full guide on expatbase.sk

Tap the link below ↓

PAPERWORK · 3/5

EU citizen? Register by day 120

Staying longer than 90 days? Register your residence within the next 30 days – roughly by day 120. It's free, but in person only: no online, email or proxy.

Rules change – always double-check

Full guide on expatbase.sk

Tap the link below ↓

HEALTH · 3/4

Want a specialist? Start with a GP

Register with a GP (obvodný lekár) – you need a referral to see a specialist. Emergency care needs no referral.

Rules change – always double-check

Need a hand? Find English-speaking doctors on expatbase.sk – free for expats.

Full guide on expatbase.sk

Tap the link below ↓

MONEY · 3/6

183 days here = Slovak tax resident

Spend 183+ days in Slovakia in a calendar year (or have a permanent home here) and you're a tax resident. That means Slovakia taxes your worldwide income.

Rules change – always double-check

Test yourself 👇

Full guide on expatbase.sk

Tap the link below ↓

WORK · 3/5

EB

No receipts? Use the 60% rule

Freelancers can deduct flat-rate expenses: 60% of income, capped at €20,000 a year – no receipts needed. Do the maths both ways; it's often the cheaper option.

Rules change – always double-check

Slide to answer 👇

Full guide on expatbase.sk

Tap the link below ↓

PAPERWORK · 4/5

Got your card? 30-day countdown starts

Within 30 days of collecting your residence card, give the Foreign Police a medical report. It can't be older than 30 days.

Rules change – always double-check

Full guide on expatbase.sk

Tap the link below ↓

HEALTH · 4/4

Insurance card not here yet? No panic

Your coverage starts when you register – the card is just proof. Ask your insurer for a potvrdenie o poistení; doctors and hospitals accept it immediately.

Rules change – always double-check

Full guide on expatbase.sk

Tap the link below ↓

MONEY · 4/6

Only employed? Let your employer do it

Ask your employer for the annual reconciliation (ročné zúčtovanie) by mid-February – done. You only file yourself if you have other income, like rent, foreign income or a živnosť.

Rules change – always double-check

Need a hand? Find English-speaking accountants on expatbase.sk – free for expats.

Full guide on expatbase.sk

Tap the link below ↓

WORK · 4/5

EB

New s.r.o. rules since 17 August 2026

Your founding deed now needs a notary or a lawyer – verified signatures aren't enough. Exception: the simplified e-form (max 5 shareholders, free trades only).

Rules change – always double-check

Full guide on expatbase.sk

Tap the link below ↓

MONEY · 5/6

Tax return due 31 March

File and pay last year's tax by 31 March. Need more time? A simple notification moves it to 30 June – or 30 September with foreign income.

Rules change – always double-check

Test yourself 👇

Full guide on expatbase.sk

Tap the link below ↓

PAPERWORK · 5/5

Renewing? Start 90 days early

File before your permit expires – realistically start 90 days ahead, as slots fill fast (especially Sept–Oct). Keep your podací lístok: it proves you're legal while you wait.

Rules change – always double-check

Slide to answer 👇

Full guide on expatbase.sk

Tap the link below ↓

MONEY · 6/6

Leaving Slovakia? Your pension stays yours

Your Slovak insurance years stay on record. With at least 1 year here, Slovakia pays its share at retirement – and you apply from wherever you live.

Rules change – always double-check

Your turn – vote 👇

Full guide on expatbase.sk

Tap the link below ↓

WORK · 5/5

Your s.r.o. pays tax even at a loss

Every s.r.o. pays a minimum tax (daňová licencia) – €340/year if taxable income is up to €50,000. Good news: not for the year it's set up.

Rules change – always double-check

Need a hand? Find English-speaking accountants on expatbase.sk – free for expats.

Full guide on expatbase.sk

Tap the link below ↓